What we do.

How does SIMG protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we utilize security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards, secured files and buildings.

How does SIMG collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account
- Seek advice about your investments
- Buy securities from us or sell securities to us
- Give us your contact information
- Enter into an investment advisory contract
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
- State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices apply to everyone on your account.
